

For those who are:

Implementing the process of validation for Medical Device manufacture in their organisation.

Preparing evidence for, or writing, an Essential Principles checklist for the Saudi Regulation.

Involved in writing Technical Files or Quality Systems for the Saudi Regulation.

Quality Engineers or Regulatory Affairs professionals.

Benefits of the Course

Highly skilled tutor with Notified Body (CE) and Competent Authority (SFDA) experience.

Practical, to incite discussion and accelerate learning.

Provides an open forum to air concerns and ask questions.

Offers the opportunity to compare notes and interact with industry peers.

A full set of course notes and guidance documents for post-course referral.

Three x 2½ hour modules held live in an on-line lecture theatre

Verification & Validation of Medical Devices

Goals of the Course

1. Introduction to Verification and Validation

The principles of Verification and Validation.

2. Process of Verification and Validation

Requirements of process Verification and Validation.

Installation Qualification.

Operational Qualification.

Performance Qualification.

3. Essential Principles and application of Verification and Validation

Use of external laboratories.

Internal testing.

Sufficient evidence.

Courses

Public course dates available.

All private courses tailored to the client's individual devices.

Hotel and parking at special rates.

The Academy Centre

info@academycenters.com

المؤسسة العامة للتدريب التقني والمهني
Technical and Vocational Training Corporation

Course code
OC1303